

The Last Supper

STORY
Mark 14

Mark 14:22-24 (For the full story, read Mark 14:12-26.)

22 While they were eating, Jesus took a piece of bread, gave a prayer of thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples. "Take it," he said, "this is my body."

23 Then he took a cup, gave thanks to God, and handed it to them; and they all drank from it. 24 Jesus said, "This is my blood which is poured out for many, my blood which seals God's covenant."

disciple a close follower of Jesus

covenant a serious agreement between two people or between God and people

Understand It!

Did you ever wish you could have been with Jesus when he walked the earth? Jesus wants to be with you so much that he did a fantastic thing. As we learn in this Bible story from Mark, Jesus gave us a farewell gift at the Last Supper: the Eucharist. Now, at every Mass, through the power of the Holy Spirit, bread and wine become Jesus' Body and Blood. They are really, truly Jesus. He comes as food so that he can enter us and be one with us. Through the Eucharist, Jesus makes us more like himself.

When we receive Holy Communion, we receive Jesus into our heart. We grow closer to him and to one another. Jesus' Body and Blood give us strength to follow him more closely.

Live It!

After receiving Communion, you can talk to Jesus heart to heart. Write a short prayer you can say when you receive Communion. Your prayer might include these words: love, thank, help, sorry, bless, or please. Write your prayer on paper cut in the shape of a heart. You can bring it to Mass on Sunday, and after you receive Holy Communion, say your prayer to Jesus.

Tell It!

Using the pictures above, retell this story in your own words.

18 While they were at the table eating, Jesus said, "I tell you that one of you will betray me—one who is eating with me."

19 The disciples were upset and began to ask him, one after the other, "Surely you don't mean me, do you?"

20 Jesus answered, "It will be one of you twelve, one who dips his bread in the dish with me. 21 The Son of Man will die as the Scriptures say he will; but how terrible for that man who will betray the Son of Man! It would have been better for that man if he had never been born!"

The Lord's Supper

22 While they were eating, Jesus took a piece of bread, gave a prayer of thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples. "Take it," he said, "this is my body."

23 Then he took a cup, gave thanks to God, and handed it to them; and they all drank from it. 24 Jesus said, "This is my blood which is poured out for many, my blood which seals God's covenant. 25 I tell you, I will never again drink this wine until the day I drink the new wine in the Kingdom of God."

26 Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

27 Jesus said to them, "All of you will run away and leave me, for the scripture says, 'God will kill the shepherd, and the sheep will all be scattered.' 28 But after I am raised to life, I will go to Galilee ahead of you."

29 Peter answered, "I will never leave you, even though all the rest do!"

30 Jesus said to Peter, "I tell you that before the rooster crows two times tonight, you will say three times that you do not know me."

31 Peter answered even more strongly, "I will never say that, even if I have to die with you!"

And all the other disciples said the same thing.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

32 They came to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray." 33 He took Peter, James, and John with him. Distress and anguish came over him, 34 and he said to them, "The sorrow in my heart is so great that it almost crushes me. Stay here and keep watch."

35 He went a little farther on, threw himself on the ground, and prayed that, if possible, he might not have to go through that time of suffering. 36 "Father," he prayed, "my Father! All things are possible for you. Take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet not what I want, but what you want."

37 Then he returned and found the three disciples asleep. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Weren't you able to stay awake for even one hour?" 38 And he said to them, "Keep watch, and pray that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

39 He went away once more and prayed, saying the same words.

40 Then he came back to the disciples and found them asleep; they could not keep their eyes open. And they did not know what to say to him.

41 When he came back the third time, he said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come! Look, the Son of Man is now being handed over to the
